To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing in support of Cambridge Community Center for the Arts. My name is Theodora (Theo) Skeadas, and I am the Executive Director of Cambridge Local First, a non-profit network of 500 locally- and independently-owned businesses and non-profits here in Cambridge.

Cambridge Community Center for the Arts is a wonderful member of our community. Their Executive Director, Dan Yonah Marshall, regularly attends our community conversations, offers support to and ideas for our other members, and works enthusiastically to bolster our distinct Cambridge community. For example, Dan has supported one member, Nina Alonso Hathaway of Fresh Pond Ballet, by spending hours helping her redesign her home studio when her physical office had to close. And, he's spent a lot of time brainstorming and partnering with Steven Adelson from Teddy Shoes, another CLF member.

I believe in Cambridge Community Center for the Arts, because they are dedicated to empowering arts in the Cambridge community. I encourage you to support them, so they can continue to expand their impact during COVID-19!

Sincerely,

Theodora Skeadas
